Sermon The Rev. Peter Jarrett-Schell

Creed We trust in the God who formed us out of dust, and breathed life into us.
We trust in his Son Jesus who, for our sake, lived as one of us,
bringing liberation.
We trust in the Holy Spirit, who challenges, sustains, and inspires us each day.
We confess ourselves Christ's disciples,
Sharing in his mission and sacrifice, for the healing of the world.

Calvary's Mission Statement Composed by Ms. Yvonne Lee
We, the members of Calvary Episcopal Church, believe in taking the journey of God's love and service to those who know Christ, and those who seek Christ.

The Eucharist

Today's Eucharistic Prayer was composed by the Rev. Dr. Gayle Fisher-Stewart

The Eucharist

The Lord be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts

We lift them to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

It is right to give God thanks and praise

It is right and a good and joyful thing to praise you O God, because you give your Spirit to sustain us, granting us life, wisdom and strength. Therefore we rejoice and praise you, joining our voices with angels, ancestors and saints, who forever sing this hymn proclaiming the glory of your name.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed indeed is the one who came in your name O Lord. For with his life he showed us how to live: loving our neighbor, healing the wounded, binding the broken hearted, lifting up the down-trodden, setting the captives free, rejoicing the power of your Spirit.

On that last night with his friends, he gathered them for a final supper together.

Taking bread, he gave thanks, broke it and gave it to them, saying,

“Take and eat. This is my body, given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup, and giving thanks gave it to them saying:

“This cup is the new covenant, shed for you for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me.”

Therefore, in remembrance of him, we proclaim this mystery of faith

Christ has died

Christ has risen

Christ will come again

And so, until his coming again, we share this bread and this cup. We pray you: send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, making them for us the precious body and blood of your son Jesus Christ. Pour out your Spirit upon us too, uniting us in your Son's body and resurrection, making us one people, filling us with abundant life and strength, to share the liberating joy and love of your presence with the world. All this we ask for your Son Jesus Christ, by whom, and with whom, and in whom, all glory and honor is yours almighty father, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, let us pray those words Jesus taught us to pray.

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors,

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

Lamb of God

You take away the sins of the World

Lamb of God

You take away the sins of the World

Lamb of God

Grant us your peace

These are the gifts of God for you, God's people. Every time you eat this bread of equity and drink this cup that pours freedom, you proclaim with your life the saving death of the risen God until he comes again.

Communion Hymn

Nothing But the Blood of Jesus

Insert

Post-Communion Prayer

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Benediction

Now listen to the sounds that stir within, listen to the cries for help that ring around you, and follow a path of healing and liberation for you and all you encounter. Take peace in the sound of your own voice as you choose the life that honors your truest self. May it be so. Amen.

Final Hymn

Let The Church Say Amen

We are blessed to have Mr. Jarvis Smith lead worship music today.

Prayers of the People

Holy Trinity, One God, the whole world is filled with your glory: Hear the prayers of your children as we say: Blessed Trinity,

Hear our prayer.

For the Church: that we may speak of what we know, and testify to what we have seen: that God is Love. Blessed Trinity,

Hear our prayer.

For this parish family, that we who are sealed in the Name of the Trinity, may find new ways to encounter God in friend and stranger, and be voices of peace and justice for all. Blessed Trinity,

Hear our prayer.

For ourselves, that we may follow the Way of Love that seeks the good, the well-being, and the welfare of others, as well as one's self. Blessed Trinity,

Hear our prayer.

For greater stewardship of the earth's resources, that we may be good stewards of God's creation, and strive to protect and preserve it for future generations. Blessed Trinity,

Hear our prayer.

For an end to violence and injustice, that God will give courage to all who are working for peace, help the voices of those who have experienced injustice to be heard, and turn the hearts of those prone to violence toward new ways of working for change. Blessed Trinity

Hear our prayer.

For all those commended to our prayers, that they may be strengthened by the healing presence of God. We pray now for those persons or concerns that lie on our hearts, spoken aloud or in silence.

We invite you to offer your prayers aloud or in silence

Hear our prayer.

Lifting our voices with all creation, with Mary, the God-bearer, and all the saints who have borne witness to the Risen Christ, let us offer ourselves and one another to the living God through Christ.

O Holy and Blessed Trinity, we give praise and glory.

Let our prayers and praises fill your temple, Holy One, and empower us to do the work of your Son and to be signs of your divine presence. Accept our prayers in the name of our Savior Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Scriptural Translations from

“A Women’s Lectionary for the Whole Church”

by Dr. Wil Gafney

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Hosea (11:1-4)

When Israel was a child, I loved them, and out of Egypt I called my child. They, the Baals, called to them, they went out to the Baals; they sacrificed and to idols, they offered incense. Yet it was I who walked toddling Ephraim, taking them by their arms; yet they did not know that I healed them. I led them with human ties, with bonds of love. I was to them like those who lift babies to their cheeks. I bent down to them and fed them.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Psalm 130-131

I wait for the WOMB OF CREATION,
my soul waits, and in her word I hope.
My soul keeps watch for the Creator,
more than those who watch for the morning,
Israel, hope in the MOTHER OF CREATION!
For with the CREATOR OF ALL there is faithful love,
And with her is abundant redemption.
It is she who will redeem Israel from all their iniquities.
WOMB OF LIFE, my heart is not lifted up,
nor my eyes exalted;
I do not keep company with things great and too wondrous for me.
rather, I have soothed and quieted my soul,
Like a weaned child with her mother;
my soul is like a weaned child within me.
Israel, hope in the WELLSPRING OF LIFE
from now until forever.
Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit
As it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever.
Amen

A Reading from the Second Letter of Peter (1:16-18)

For we did not follow sophisticated mythologies when we made known to you all the power and coming of our Redeemer Jesus Christ, rather we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For Christ from God the Sovereign received honor and glory, a voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." And we ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ

According to Matthew (28:16-20)

Praise to you, Lord Christ

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus sent them. And when they saw him, they bowed down worshipping him; but some doubted. Then Jesus came and said to them saying, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. Now look, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

The Gospel of the Lord

Glory to you, Lord Christ
